

OhioHealth Announces New Chief Operating Officer

Columbus, Ohio, July 24, 2020 - OhioHealth, a nationally recognized, not-for-profit, charitable, healthcare outreach of the United Methodist Church, announced John McWhorter has been appointed Chief Operating Officer (COO) of OhioHealth, effective July 27, 2020. John will succeed Mike Louge, who will retire on December 31, 2020.

John brings over 30 years of healthcare experience and knows how to engage people to focus on operations while keeping the patient at the center of all decisions. He has served as Chief Operating Officer for Baylor Scott & White Health in Dallas, Texas, since 2015, having joined them in 2011 as Senior Vice President of their North Texas Division.

"John's personal values align with our culture and that was evident every time we talked," said Dr. Steve Markovich, President and CEO. "Likewise, when you look at all he has accomplished at Baylor Scott & White and throughout his career, there is no doubt he will hit the ground running at OhioHealth."

For more information about OhioHealth, visit www.ohiohealth.com